About the Club

The AOMCC was formed at a meeting called for 3pm on Saturday 24 November 1951, at the famous Ace Café on the North Circular Road in London, by a small group of enthusiasts from the London area. Membership is open to all owners of, and enthusiasts for, Ariel motorcycles. The AOMCC was one of the founding clubs of what later became the British Motorcyclists' Federation.

The club exists to provide opportunities for Ariel enthusiasts to meet and discuss motorcycling matters and to foster friendships between members, who are encouraged to form branches. There are branches throughout the UK, as well as 'social meets' and numerous overseas branches too. Being a branch member adds to the benefits of club membership but the unattached member is not forgotten. All full members receive the monthly magazine Cheval de Fer. This includes technical articles, members' news, branch reports and photographs. Members wishing to buy or sell spares may advertise free of charge and the magazine also carries trade advertisements relevant to Ariels. There's also a discussion forum run via our main website and a very active Facebook page.

The club also exists to advise members on matters concerning the running and maintenance of their machines, to encourage the production and availability of spares and generally to do its best to keep Ariels on the road. Spares organisers cater for the various models and technical queries can usually be answered by the club's archivist. The archives include some works drawings and indexed technical articles from over 40 years back numbers of Cheval de Fer.

The club encourages members to adopt the habit of quiet and courteous motorcycling and aims to establish and maintain good relations between motorcyclists and the general public. The club is a member of the Federation of British Historic Vehicle Clubs that protects the rights of users of all historic vehicles against the ever increasing threats of restrictive legislation.

There are many events held each year and, although vastly increased in size since its formation, the AOMCC remains an informal and friendly club. Subscriptions are kept as low as possible and all club officers are unpaid volunteers.

To join: complete the application form on the next page and send it to the membership secretary.

ARIEL

I apply for membership of the Ariel Owners' Motorcycle Club. If accepted, I agree to abide by the constitution of the club, and by any amendments thereto that may be made. The information that you give us below will be used to send you the monthly magazine and may be used to determine geographical data for events and local groups. We may use your telephone number to contact you in exceptional circumstances, i.e.: event cancellations or an emergency. We may use your email address to contact you electronically, using an electronic mailing list, to distribute bulk notifications. We will hold details of your bikes in the Club Register for statistical purposes. We will not share your data with third parties (except for our Printers to send you a magazine) and we will not sell your data to third parties. You have the right to ask for a copy of the data held; we will not charge you for this information and will supply it within 28 days of the request. You have the right to ask us to remove or delete any of your data we hold at any time, but if we do not hold at least your postal address you will no longer receive the magazine. You or your Ariel may appear in photographs taken at Club events and displayed in the magazine or on the website. More info on the website.
